

Procedures for Immigration and Attaining Status of Residence

<Required Reading Before Application>

As a general rule, in order to stay in Japan as a foreign student, one needs to have the Status of Residence of "College Student". Students who have passed the entrance examination will be required to follow the procedures for obtaining a Status of Residence in order to stay in Japan after being admitted. Please follow the steps below to complete the procedures.

For Applicants in Japan with a Status of Residence

1 . If your Status of Residence is "Spouse or Child of Japanese National" or "Permanent Resident", you do not need to change it.

However, in this case, please note that you will not be eligible for tuition reduction or exemption, or scholarships for International Students.

2 . Regarding other Statuses of Residence, please consult with the Immigration Bureau.

For Applicants Outside of Japan

A "Certificate of Eligibility" will be applied for on your behalf after you are admitted, in order to obtain a "International Student" visa. After the "Certificate of Eligibility" is issued, the Applicant must present the "Letter of Admission" and the "Certificate of Eligibility" to the Japanese Consulate to apply for this visa.

Regarding Representative Application for the "Certificate of Eligibility"

After the Applicant has completed the admissions procedures and receives the "Letter of Acceptance" issued by the university, they must apply to the Immigration Bureau for a "Certificate of Eligibility". This can be done by the Applicant or by one of the following Representatives residing in Japan.

Representative	Place of Application
Scholarship Organization	Osaka Regional Immigration Bureau Kyoto Office
Financial Sponsor in Japan	The Kyoto Branch Office of the Osaka Regional Immigration Bureau or the regional immigration bureau with jurisdiction over the location of the proxy applicant
Relative in Japan
Ryukoku University	Kyoto Branch Office or Otsu Branch Office, Osaka Regional Immigration Bureau

1 . A Scholarship Organization, Financial Sponsor in Japan, or a Relative in Japan may apply on behalf of the Applicant. Each representative should refer to the chart above for information regarding which office to submit the application. Please inquire at the Immigration Office regarding necessary documents and procedures.

2 . Regarding Representative Application by Ryukoku University

1) Documents Required for Requesting Representative Application by Ryukoku University

~~The Applicant must be a privately-funded International Student wishing to enroll at the university who does not have another individual in the category of "Scholarship Organization", "Financial Sponsor in Japan", or "Relative in Japan" to do so for them. The Applicant must also meet either of the following requirements:~~

- (1) The Applicant must be able to cover necessary expenses during their study abroad period with a sufficient amount of scholarship money.
- (2) The Applicant must be able to cover their own expenses while studying abroad, and must be able to prove this ability with a prescribed certificate.

2) How to Request Representative Application by Ryukoku University

If you wish to apply, be sure to submit the "Ryukoku University Application for Representation" and "Statement of Financial Support" with other required application documents. The university will decide whether or not to accept this application, and it is not possible for the Applicant to make an appeal against this decision.

The University can only apply on your behalf for the Status of Residence as "International Student".

3) Admissions Procedures and Representative Application

After completion of Admissions Procedures has been confirmed, a "Letter of Acceptance" will be issued and the University will apply for a "Certificate of Eligibility (COE)" on behalf of the Applicant. If the application is accepted by the Immigration Bureau, the COE will be issued by the Immigration Authorities and mailed to the Applicant by the University.
